

Yankees Taking China—Attack on Americans in China!

The North China Herald, of November 11th, gives an account of a collision between the Imperialists and Americans at Shanghai. The Imperialists attempted to enter some houses near the north gate. The American sentries stopped them and called out the guard, and the proper signal being given, a company of soldiers and marines were landed from the United States sloop Vandalia, and marched to the ground. The Imperialists fired upon the Americans, and shots were exchanged, but finally, upon the appearance of a portion of the rebel army, the Imperialists ran off.

Some of the Chinese papers have considerable to say as to the "speculation" of a Yankee who has agreed to recapture Foh Shan from the rebels for $100,000. It is said that the United States consul will interfere to prevent the consummation of this agreement. The Hong Kong Register is of opinion however that as several Americans have been allowed to help the rebels in late skirmishes near Canton, it is not fair play to interfere when they are aiding the Imperialists.

Supreme Court of Ohio.

The Supreme Court of this State adjourned its present sitting this morning, until the first Monday in April. Notwithstanding the vast amount of business disposed of at this session, the state of the docket imperatively requires another session of the Court, on account of the unusual accumulation of business for this term. The adjourned session will last probably through the months of April and May.

Judge Warden, appointed to fill out the unexpired term of Judge Corwin, leaves the bench by the expiration of his commission, and is succeeded by Judge Swan. The manner in which Judge Warden has discharged the duties of his position, has been highly satisfactory to the bar and the people, and has proved his eminent fitness for the position. He has simply demonstrated to the public, the ability and learning as a jurist with which his many friends knew him to be endowed, before his appointment.

Of Judge Swan's personal worth and legal accomplishment we need say nothing in commendation; nor of our personal esteem for the man. He will be of great service and value to the jurisprudence of Ohio.—Statesman.
